Macmillan

VCE Religion and Society Units 1–4

Units 1–4 in one text

Macmillan

VCE Religion and Society Units 1–4

Damien Green
Meaghan Paul
Shayndel Samuel

Print & Digital formats available
Written by leading teachers and VCE assessors, this insightful text addresses all requirements of the 2011 Study Design.

The authors know the demands of the classroom and assessment requirements, and have ensured both are fully addressed in the text.

Working through VCE Religion and Society will help students acquire the skills to analyse the dynamic role of religious traditions in society.

The contemporary issues drawn upon are significant and relevant to senior students.

Features:

- each chapter corresponds to an Area of Study
- Eight Aspects of a Religious Tradition are highlighted and reinforced
- activities include a blend of both individual and group work for classroom or homework
- activities to meet Outcomes of each Area of Study
- methodologies and approaches can be applied to any religious tradition students are studying
- relevant concepts have been applied to popular culture to engage students and develop skills and knowledge
- unfamiliar terms highlighted and defined in the text, and included in a glossary
- suggested Outcome Tasks and practice exam-type questions provided.

Siew Im Yeoh, teacher
Australian International Academy, Coburg North

…a useful, enriching and engaging text…”
Contents:

Unit 1: Religion in Society
1.1 The Religious World
1.2 Religious Traditions in Australia
1.3 Religious Identity and Life Experience

Unit 2: Ethics and Morality
2.1 Ethical Method in Pluralist Society
2.2 Religion and Morality in Pluralist Society
2.3 Contemporary Ethical Issues in Pluralist Society

Unit 3: The Search for Meaning
3.1 Meaning in Religious Traditions
3.2 Maintaining Continuity in Religious Beliefs
3.3 Significant Life Experience and Religious Belief

Unit 4: Challenge and Response
4.1 Historical Challenges to Religious Traditions
4.2 Contemporary Challenges and their Impact

Units 3 and 4
Revision and sample exam questions